

Management algorithm for anterior table fractures

Management algorithm for posterior table fractures

Notes: For fractures greater than 1 table width with no CSF leakage and communion, the recommendations to observe, obliterate, and cranialize are for mild communion, moderate communion, and severe communion, respectively.