

What did Einstein mean when he wrote:

“Science without religion is lame;
religion without science is blind”?

A discussion of the assumptions of religion and science by

Dr. Fred Grinnell

Professor of Cell Biology at UT Southwestern Author of The Scientific Attitude; and The Everyday Practice of Science: Where Intuition and Passion Meet Objectivity and Logic

Noon Monday, November 30th, D1.502 • Lunch provided for the first 30 people

UTSW MEDICAL HUMANITIES INTEREST GROUP